Casa do Pátio

Hidden in a narrow street in the old neighbourhood of Santa Catarina, Casa do Pátio is close to the nightlife in the buzzy Bairro Alto nearby, but not so close that you'll be kept awake by its noisy streets. The highlight here is indeed the patio, where bright flowerpots and chairs provide splashes of primary colours against white-washed walls. The top two apartments (there are four plus nine bedrooms) on the 4th floor (word of warning - there's no lift) have a panoramic view of the Tejo river. The friendly staff are happy to give tips and recommendations for places to eat, drink and explore in the city.
